

God Will Surprise You with His Goodness

“Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man who trusts in Him!” — Psalm 34:8

There are times when life becomes predictable, difficult, and tiring. We pray, wait, and hope, yet nothing seems to change. But our God is a God of surprises. He delights in blessing His children in ways they never expected.

Sarah laughed when she heard she would bear a son in her old age, yet God fulfilled His promise. Peter toiled all night and caught nothing, but at Jesus' command his nets overflowed with fish. The widow of Zarephath expected her last meal, but God provided an endless supply of flour and oil.

Do not allow today's challenges to limit your expectation of what God can do. The Lord is able to open unexpected doors, send divine helpers, restore lost opportunities, and bring joy where there has been sorrow.

Keep trusting Him. Keep serving Him. Keep praising Him. Your next testimony may come from a place you least expect. God's goodness is still pursuing you, and His favor is still upon your life.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your goodness and faithfulness. Help me to trust You even when I do not understand what You are doing. Fill my heart with expectation and faith, believing that You are able to do more than I can imagine. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Faith Declaration

I expect the goodness of the Lord in my life. God is opening new doors, creating new opportunities, and filling my heart with joy. I will trust Him and rejoice in His faithfulness. Amen.

Expect God's goodness today. The God who surprised Sarah, Peter, and the widow is still working miracles and turning ordinary days into testimonies.
