

The Lord Will Perfect What Concerns You

“The Lord will perfect that which concerns me; Your mercy, O Lord, endures forever; do not forsake the works of Your hands.” — Psalm 138:8

There are areas in our lives that seem unfinished. Dreams remain unfulfilled, prayers appear unanswered, and situations look incomplete. Yet God is not intimidated by unfinished stories. What He starts, He finishes.

The disciples thought the storm would destroy them, but Jesus spoke peace and brought them safely to the other side. Martha believed it was too late for Lazarus, but Jesus demonstrated that He is never limited by time. What seems impossible to us is an opportunity for God to reveal His power.

Do not be discouraged by what has not yet happened. God is still working. He is shaping your character, arranging circumstances, and preparing blessings that are beyond your imagination. His mercy has not run out, and His purpose for your life has not changed.

Trust Him with every unfinished chapter. The Author of your faith knows exactly how your story will end, and His plans for you are good.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank You that You are faithful to complete what You have begun in my life. Help me to trust You with every concern, every dream, and every unanswered prayer. Strengthen my faith and teach me to rest in Your perfect plan. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Faith Declaration

The Lord is perfecting everything that concerns me. I will not fear, worry, or lose hope. God's mercy endures forever, and His purpose for my life will surely be fulfilled. Amen.

God does not abandon unfinished work. If He started it, He will complete it in His perfect time.
