FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to this Discipleship Study on Foundations of Faith.

This manual has been carefully prepared to help you understand the essential truths of the Christian life and to establish you on a firm spiritual foundation.

Whether you are a new believer or someone seeking to grow deeper in your walk with God, this study will guide you step by step into a stronger and more stable faith.

Christianity is not just about attending church or knowing religious practices—it is about having a real relationship with God through Jesus Christ. That relationship must be built on truth, understanding, and daily obedience.

Purpose of This Study

This study is designed to help you:

- Understand what salvation truly means
- Develop confidence in your relationship with God
- Experience genuine repentance and freedom from sin
- Learn the difference between grace and works

- Fully surrender your life to the Lordship of Christ

By the end of this study, you should not only understand these truths but also begin to live them out practically in your daily life.

How to Use This Self-Study

To benefit fully from this study:

- Pray before you begin each lesson. Ask God to give you understanding.
- Read all Scriptures carefully and take time to reflect on them.
- Study each lesson slowly—do not rush through the material.
- Answer the reflective questions honestly, as they are meant to help you examine your heart.
- Apply what you learn in your daily life.
Transformation happens through obedience.

It is recommended that you take one lesson at a time, allowing the truths to sink deeply into your heart.

What You Will Find in Each Lesson

Each lesson is structured to help you grow step by step and includes:

- Clear teaching from Scripture
- Simple explanations of key truths

- Practical illustrations to aid understanding
- Points to remember for reinforcement
- Reflective questions for personal application

At the end of the study, you will also find:

- A final examination to test your understanding
 - A closing prayer to help you commit your life fully to God

Encouragement for the Journey

Spiritual growth is a process. Do not be discouraged if you do not understand everything immediately or if you struggle along the way. What matters is consistency, sincerity, and a willing heart.

God is committed to your growth even more than you are. As you take time to study and apply His Word, you will begin to see real transformation in your life.

Final Encouragement

Approach this study with:

- A humble heart
- A teachable spirit

- A desire to obey God

Remember, the goal is not just to gain knowledge—but to become a true disciple of Jesus Christ.

“Go therefore and make disciples...” – Matthew 28:19

Prologue

Every strong building begins with a solid foundation. In the same way, every believer must be grounded in the basic truths of the Christian faith. Without a strong foundation, a believer can easily be shaken by doubt, temptation, or false teaching.

This lesson will help you understand the core truths of your faith so that you can stand firm, grow spiritually, and live a victorious Christian life.

LESSON 1: SALVATION – BEING BORN AGAIN

Key Scriptures

- John 3:3 Jesus answered and said to him, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”
- 2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.
- Romans 10:9-10 that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Explanation

Salvation is the supernatural work of God where a sinner is:

- Forgiven of sin
- Declared righteous
- Given a new spiritual nature
- Reconciled back to God

Being “born again” is not:

- Joining a church

- Being baptized alone
- Doing good works

It is a spiritual rebirth. Just as physical birth brings you into the world, spiritual birth brings you into the Kingdom of God.

At salvation:

- Your past is forgiven
- Your present is transformed
- Your future is secured in Christ

Illustration: Dead battery

A dead battery may look perfectly normal on the outside, but it has no power to perform its purpose. A car with a dead battery cannot start, no matter how beautiful or expensive it is. It needs a new source of power before it can function properly.

In the same way, every person is born with a spiritual problem called sin. Because of sin, the human spirit is separated from God and lacks the spiritual life needed to know Him personally. A person may be educated, successful, moral, or religious, yet still be spiritually dead apart from Christ.

When a person receives Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, God gives them new spiritual life. This is what Jesus called being "born again" (John 3:3). The Holy Spirit comes to live within the believer, bringing spiritual life, power, and a restored relationship with God.

Just as a dead battery cannot recharge itself, a sinner cannot save himself through good works, religion, or personal effort. Only God can give new life through His grace. Once a person is born again, they are empowered to grow spiritually, obey God, and live a life that pleases Him.

Spiritual Lesson:

A dead battery needs power from an outside source. Likewise, spiritual life comes only from God through Jesus Christ. Salvation is not self-improvement—it is receiving a new life from God.

Key Verse:

"And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins." — Ephesians 2:1

Points to Remember

- Salvation is entirely God's work
- It is received by faith, not effort
- It results in a new identity in Christ
- You are no longer condemned (Romans 8:1)

- Salvation is the beginning, not the end, of your journey

Reflective Questions

1. What evidence do I see that my life has changed since I believed?
 2. Do I understand salvation as transformation or just forgiveness?
 3. In what ways is my new life in Christ visible to others?
 4. What old habits or mind-sets still need to change?

LESSON 2: ASSURANCE OF SALVATION

Key Scriptures

- 1 John 5:13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue.
- Romans 8:16 The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God,
- John 10:28 And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand.

Explanation

Assurance means having confidence that you belong to God and have eternal life.

This assurance is built on three pillars:

1. God's Promise (The Word of God)

- God cannot lie
- If He says you are saved, you are saved

2. The Work of Christ

- Jesus paid the full price
- Nothing needs to be added

3. The Evidence of Change

- New desires
- Conviction of sin
- Growth in righteousness

Important Truth

Feelings are unreliable. Some days you may feel saved, other days not—but salvation is based on truth, not emotion.

The Title Deed of Salvation

A title deed is a legal document that proves ownership of property or land. Once the title deed is properly issued, it remains valid regardless of how the owner feels. There may be days when the owner feels uncertain, worried, or afraid, but those feelings do not change the fact that the land legally belongs to them.

In the same way, a believer's assurance of salvation is not based on emotions, circumstances, or opinions. It is based on the promises found in God's Word. Some days a Christian may feel close to God, while on other days they may feel weak, discouraged, or spiritually dry. However, feelings do not determine salvation—God's promises do.

When God says that those who believe in Jesus Christ have eternal life, His promise is certain and trustworthy. Just as a title deed serves as evidence of ownership, the Scriptures serve as evidence of God's promise of salvation to every believer.

For example, 1 John 5:13 says:

"These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life."

Notice that the verse says "know," not "hope" or "guess." God wants His children to have confidence in their salvation.

This does not mean believers will never struggle with doubts. Sometimes doubts come through difficult circumstances, spiritual attacks, or a lack of understanding of God's Word. When that happens, believers should return to the promises of Scripture and trust what God has said rather than what they feel.

Spiritual Lesson:

Your assurance of salvation rests on God's unchanging Word, not on changing emotions. Feelings may rise and fall, but God's promises remain forever.

Key Verse:

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away." — Matthew 24:35

Point to Remember:

A title deed proves ownership even when feelings change. Likewise, God's Word confirms your salvation even when emotions fluctuate.

- Assurance is rooted in Scripture, not emotions
- Doubt often comes from lack of understanding or spiritual attack
- Growth in Christ strengthens assurance
- The Holy Spirit confirms your identity as God's child

Reflective Questions

1. What causes me to doubt my salvation, if at all?
2. Which scriptures can I hold onto when I feel uncertain?

3. Do I see spiritual growth in my life?
 4. How can I strengthen my confidence in God's promises?

LESSON 3: REPENTANCE AND FORGIVENESS

Key Scriptures

- Acts 3:19 Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,
- 1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
- Isaiah 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together," Says the LORD, "Though your sins are like scarlet, They shall be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They shall be as wool.

Explanation

Repentance is not merely saying "sorry." It is:

- A change of mind about sin

- A change of heart toward God
- A change of direction in life

True repentance involves:

- Conviction (recognizing sin)
- Confession (admitting sin)
- Turning away (abandoning sin)

Forgiveness means:

- Your sins are completely removed
- Your record is wiped clean
- Your relationship with God is restored

Illustration: Turning Away from the Cliff

Imagine a person walking toward the edge of a dangerous cliff. They may be unaware of the danger ahead, but someone sees the risk and shouts a warning. Hearing the warning is important, but hearing alone will not save them. If they continue walking in the same direction, they will eventually fall.

To be safe, the person must do more than acknowledge the warning—they must stop, turn around, and begin walking in a different direction. That decisive change of direction is what repentance looks like spiritually.

Sin leads people away from God and toward spiritual destruction. Through His Word, the Holy Spirit warns us about the danger of sin and convicts us of our need for change. True repentance occurs when we not only recognize that we are wrong but also choose to turn away from sin and move toward God.

Many people feel sorry when they are caught in sin or when they experience its consequences. However, sorrow alone is not repentance. Repentance involves a genuine change of mind, heart, and behaviour. It is choosing God's way instead of our own.

When we repent, God does not merely forgive our sins; He restores our relationship with Him and helps us walk in a new direction through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Repentance is not simply feeling bad about sin—it is turning away from sin and turning toward God in obedience and faith.

Biblical Example

The prodigal son (Luke 15:11–24) realized the wrong path he had taken. He did not remain where he was; he got up and returned to his father. His return demonstrated true repentance.

Key Verse

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord." — Acts 3:19

Points to Remember

A person is not safe until they turn away from the cliff. Likewise, genuine repentance requires turning away from sin and moving toward God.

Repentance is ongoing, not one-time

God's forgiveness is complete and immediate

Guilt is removed when sin is confessed

You cannot hold onto sin and grow spiritually

Reflective Questions

1. Is there any sin I am excusing instead of repenting from?
2. Do I quickly respond to conviction from the Holy Spirit?
3. Do I truly accept God's forgiveness, or do I hold onto guilt?

4. What practical steps can I take to avoid repeating past sins?

LESSON 4: GRACE VS WORKS

Key Scriptures

- Ephesians 2:8-9 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, lest anyone should boast.
- Romans 3:28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
- Titus 3:5 not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit

Explanation

Grace is God giving us what we do not deserve.
Salvation is entirely based on grace.

Works are:

- Good deeds
- Religious actions

- Moral efforts

The danger is thinking:

“I must do good to be accepted by God.”

The truth is:

“You are accepted by God, therefore you do good.”

Balance

- Works do not produce salvation
- But salvation produces works

Illustration: The Tree and Its Fruit

A healthy tree does not wake up each day struggling or forcing itself to produce fruit. Fruit naturally grows because the tree is alive, healthy, and connected to its source of nourishment. Its roots draw water and nutrients from the soil, and over time the fruit appears as evidence of the tree's life.

In the same way, good works are not what make a person a Christian. Rather, good works are the natural result of a genuine relationship with Jesus Christ. When a person is born again, God's life begins to work within them through the Holy Spirit. As they grow in faith, their actions begin to reflect the change that has taken place in their heart.

Just as an apple tree produces apples because it is an apple tree, a believer produces spiritual fruit because they belong to Christ. This fruit includes acts of kindness, obedience, generosity, love, service, forgiveness, and godly character.

Trying to earn salvation through good works is like tying fruit onto a dead tree. The fruit may appear genuine for a short time, but it does not come from real life within the tree. True spiritual fruit can only come from a heart that has been transformed by God's grace.

Jesus taught that a tree is known by its fruit (Matthew 7:16-20). While good works do not save us, they provide evidence that God's saving work is active in our lives.

Good works are not the root of salvation; they are the fruit of salvation. We do not do good works to become accepted by God—we do good works because we have already been accepted through Christ.

Biblical Example

After Zacchaeus met Jesus (Luke 19:1-10), his life changed. He willingly gave to the poor and repaid those he had cheated. These actions did not save him; they were the fruit of the salvation he had already received.

Key Verse

"For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." —

Ephesians 2:10

Point to Remember

A living tree naturally produces fruit. Likewise, a person who has truly received God's grace will increasingly produce good works that reflect the life of Christ within them.

- Grace removes pride and self-effort
- You cannot earn salvation
- Good works are evidence of genuine faith
- Legalism weakens spiritual growth

Reflective Questions

1. Do I sometimes feel I must “earn” God’s love?
2. How does understanding grace change my relationship with God?
3. Are my good works motivated by love or obligation?
4. How can I grow in living by grace daily?

LESSON 5: THE LORDSHIP OF CHRIST

Key Scriptures

- Luke 9:23 Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily,
- Romans 12:1 "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service."
- Philippians 2:9-11 Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Explanation

Accepting Jesus as Saviour without surrendering to Him as Lord leads to a shallow Christian life.

Lordship means:

- Total surrender
- Daily obedience
- Yielding control of your life

Areas Christ must be Lord over:

- Your decisions
- Your relationships
- Your time
- Your resources
- Your future

Illustration: A Kingdom Cannot Have Two Kings

In every kingdom, there can only be one supreme ruler. If two kings attempt to rule the same kingdom at the same time, conflict, confusion, and division will result. Their commands will clash, their priorities will differ, and the people will not know whom to obey. For a kingdom to function properly, one king must have complete authority.

The same principle applies to the Christian life. When a person accepts Jesus Christ as Lord, they are acknowledging His right to rule every area of their life. However, many believers struggle because they want Christ to be Saviour while still maintaining control over certain parts of their lives.

For example, a person may want Jesus to save them from sin, but still insist on making all their own decisions without seeking God's guidance. They may surrender some areas of life while keeping control of others such as finances, relationships, career choices, habits, or future plans. This divided loyalty creates spiritual conflict.

Jesus does not seek partial authority; He seeks complete Lordship. He desires to be Lord over our thoughts, words, actions, ambitions, possessions, and relationships. True discipleship begins when we willingly place every area of our lives under His authority.

Lordship does not mean losing freedom; it means coming under the loving leadership of the One who knows what is best for us. Christ's rule brings peace, purpose, direction, and spiritual growth.

Biblical Example

King Saul is an example of someone who wanted to follow God while still doing things his own way. Because he repeatedly chose his will over God's commands, he lost God's favour (1 Samuel 15).

In contrast, Jesus demonstrated perfect surrender when He prayed:

"Not My will, but Yours, be done." (Luke 22:42)

You cannot fully follow Christ while insisting on ruling your own life. Spiritual growth begins when Christ occupies the throne of your heart.

Key Verse

"If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me."
— Luke 9:23

Point to Remember

A kingdom cannot have two kings. Every day you must choose who will sit on the throne of your life—yourself or Jesus Christ. A victorious Christian life is found when Christ is King and His will becomes your highest priority.

- Lordship is a daily commitment
- Partial surrender leads to spiritual struggle
- Obedience is proof of true faith
- Following Christ requires sacrifice

Reflective Questions

1. What areas of my life are not fully surrendered to Christ?

2. What does daily surrender look like for me practically?
 3. Am I obeying God even when it is difficult?
 4. What step of obedience is God calling me to take now?

CONCLUSION

A strong believer is built on truth, not emotion.

These five foundations must be firmly established:

- You are born again through Christ
- You can have assurance of salvation
- You must live a life of repentance
- You are saved by grace, not works
- Jesus Christ is Lord of your life

When these are understood and lived out:

- Your faith becomes stable
- Your growth becomes consistent
- Your life becomes fruitful
- Your witness becomes powerful
