GROWING IN CHRIST. WALKING IN GRACE. IMPACTING LIVES.

DISCIPLESHIP – PART 4

Introduction

Part Four marks the final stage of this discipleship journey. In the previous sections, we learned the foundations of faith, developed spiritual disciplines, and explored the process of spiritual maturity. Now, we turn our attention to the believer's mission in the world and God's call to advance His Kingdom.

Jesus never intended His followers to remain passive recipients of His grace. He calls every disciple to become an active participant in His redemptive work. Believers are commissioned to proclaim the Gospel, stand firm in spiritual battles, serve faithfully within the Church, and intentionally invest in the spiritual growth of others.

In Part Four, we will study important themes including Evangelism, Spiritual Warfare, The Church and Its Mission, and Making Disciples. These lessons will equip believers to share their faith with confidence, resist the schemes of the enemy, understand the purpose of the Church, and fulfil the Great Commission entrusted to every follower of Christ.

The Christian life is both a privilege and a responsibility. God has empowered His people through the Holy Spirit, provided spiritual resources for victory, and promised His continual presence as they carry out His mission. We do not labour in our own strength but in the power of the risen Christ who has overcome the world.

As disciples mature, they become disciple-makers. They move beyond personal growth and begin helping others know Christ, grow in faith, and serve effectively. Through faithful obedience, believers become instruments through whom God transforms families, communities, and nations.

May this final section inspire you to embrace your calling with renewed passion, stand firm in faith, and dedicate yourself to making disciples who will continue the work of Christ until He returns.

Theme Scripture

Matthew 28:19–20 (NKJV)

"Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

Opening Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for calling me to be Your witness and servant. Fill me with the Holy Spirit and give me courage to share the Gospel, wisdom to disciple others, and strength to stand firm against spiritual opposition.

Help me to love Your Church, serve faithfully, and fulfil the mission You have entrusted to me. May my life bring glory to Jesus Christ and lead many people into a deeper relationship with You.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

CHAPTER 1

Evangelism: Sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ

Theme Scripture

Matthew 28:19–20 (NKJV)

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you...”

Key Verse

Acts 1:8 (NKJV)

“But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

Introduction

One of the greatest privileges given to believers is the opportunity to share the message of salvation with others. Evangelism is not reserved for pastors, evangelists, or missionaries alone. Every follower of Jesus Christ is called to be a witness.

The Gospel is the good news that God loves humanity, that Jesus Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again on the third day, and that everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness and eternal life.

Many Christians desire to tell others about Jesus but feel afraid, inadequate, or uncertain about what to say. This chapter seeks to remove those fears and provide practical guidance for sharing the Gospel with confidence and compassion.

1. What Is Evangelism?

Evangelism is communicating the message of Jesus Christ so that people may believe in Him and become His disciples.

The word Gospel means good news.

The Gospel message includes:

- God's love for humanity.
- Humanity's problem of sin.
- Christ's death and resurrection.
- Repentance and faith.

- The promise of eternal life.

Romans 1:16 (NKJV)

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes.”

2. Why Should Believers Evangelize?

Jesus Commanded It

Matthew 28:19

Jesus instructed His followers to make disciples of all nations.

Evangelism is not optional.

It is an act of obedience.

People Need Salvation

Romans 3:23 (NKJV)

“For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Without Christ, people remain separated from God.

Believers have been entrusted with the message of reconciliation.

God's Desire Is That People Be Saved

2 Peter 3:9 (NKJV)

“The Lord is... not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.”

God's heart is for the lost.

Our hearts should reflect His compassion.

3. The Message We Share

God's Love

John 3:16 (NKJV)

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son...”

Humanity's Sin

Romans 6:23 (NKJV)

“For the wages of sin is death...”

Christ's Sacrifice

Romans 5:8 (NKJV)

“But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

Salvation Through Faith

Ephesians 2:8–9 (NKJV)

“For by grace you have been saved through faith...”

Invitation to Respond

Romans 10:13 (NKJV)

“For whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved.”

4. Methods of Evangelism

God uses different approaches to reach people.

Personal Conversations

Sharing the Gospel one-on-one.

Testimony

Tell others what Jesus has done in your life.

People may argue with opinions, but they cannot deny a transformed life.

Acts of Kindness

Serving others opens doors for spiritual conversations.

Public Preaching

Preaching remains a powerful means of proclaiming Christ.

Digital Evangelism

Believers can share messages through:

Websites

Social media

Videos

Podcasts

Blogs

Online Bible studies

5. Overcoming Fear

Fear prevents many believers from witnessing.

Common fears include:

Fear of rejection

Fear of making mistakes

Fear of difficult questions

Fear of embarrassment

2 Timothy 1:7 (NKJV)

“For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.”

Remember:

You are responsible for sharing.

God is responsible for changing hearts.

6. Depending Upon the Holy Spirit

Evangelism should never rely solely upon human wisdom.

Acts 1:8 (NKJV)

“You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you.”

The Holy Spirit helps believers:

Speak boldly.

Show compassion.

Know what to say.

Discern opportunities.

Pray effectively.

7. Following Up New Believers

Evangelism does not end when someone accepts Christ.

New believers need guidance.

Practical Steps

Encourage Bible reading.

Teach prayer.

Invite them to church.

Introduce them to mature Christians.

Help them understand baptism.

Meet regularly for discipleship.

Biblical Examples of Evangelism

Philip and the Ethiopian

Acts 8:26–39

Philip explained Scripture and led the Ethiopian official to Christ.

The Samaritan Woman

John 4

After meeting Jesus, she shared her testimony with her community.

Many people believed because of her witness.

Paul

Paul travelled extensively, preaching the Gospel despite opposition and persecution.

Illustration

A person who discovers a cure for a deadly disease would naturally want others to know about it.

Likewise, believers have received the message of eternal life and should eagerly share it with those who are spiritually lost.

Reflection Questions

1. What fears hinder you from sharing your faith?
 2. How would you explain the Gospel to a friend?
 3. Who are three people you can begin praying for today?
 4. How can you use technology to share Christ?
 5. What steps can you take to disciple a new believer?

Memory Verse

Romans 1:16 (NKJV)

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes.”

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for saving me through Jesus Christ. Give me a heart for those who do not know You. Fill me with the Holy Spirit and help me share the Gospel with boldness, compassion, and wisdom. Use my words, actions, and testimony to lead others into a saving relationship with Jesus.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Points to Remember

- Evangelism is the responsibility of every believer.
- The Gospel is the message of Christ's death and resurrection.
- The Holy Spirit empowers believers to witness.
- Personal testimony is a powerful evangelistic tool.
- New believers should be nurtured through discipleship and fellowship.

CHAPTER 2

Spiritual Warfare: Standing Firm Against the Enemy

Theme Scripture

Ephesians 6:10–11 (NKJV)

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.”

Key Verse

1 Peter 5:8 (NKJV)

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.”

Introduction

The Christian life is not only a journey of growth and service, but also a spiritual battle. Every believer faces opposition from forces that seek to hinder spiritual progress, weaken faith, and discourage obedience to God.

Many Christians either ignore spiritual warfare or become overly focused on it. The Bible teaches a balanced perspective. We are neither to fear Satan nor underestimate his schemes. Instead, we are called to remain alert, depend upon God's power, and stand firm in faith.

Victory in spiritual warfare does not come through human strength, special formulas, or religious rituals. It comes through Jesus Christ, who has already defeated Satan through His death and resurrection.

As disciples of Christ, we must understand our enemy, recognize his strategies, and use the spiritual resources God has provided.

1. Understanding Our Enemy

The Bible identifies Satan as a real spiritual being who opposes God and seeks to deceive humanity.

John 8:44 (NKJV)

“He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him.”

The Bible describes Satan as:

The Tempter

Matthew 4:3

He attempts to entice believers into sin.

The Accuser

Revelation 12:10

He seeks to condemn and discourage God's people.

The Deceiver

2 Corinthians 11:14

He disguises himself to lead people away from truth.

The Adversary

1 Peter 5:8

He actively opposes believers.

2. The Believer's Position in Christ

Believers do not fight for victory.

They fight from victory.

Jesus has already conquered Satan.

Colossians 2:15 (NKJV)

“Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it.”

Through Christ believers have:

Forgiveness of sins.

Authority to resist the devil.

The indwelling Holy Spirit.

Access to God's power.

Confidence in eternal security.

3. Common Strategies of the Enemy

Temptation

Satan appeals to sinful desires.

Genesis 3:1–6

Eve was tempted to doubt God's Word.

Deception

False teachings and distorted doctrines can lead believers astray.

John 8:32 (NKJV)

“And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

Discouragement

The enemy often attacks believers through disappointment and fear.

Division

Conflict among believers weakens churches and ministries.

Accusation

Satan reminds believers of past failures to produce guilt and hopelessness.

4. The Armour of God

Ephesians 6:13–18

God provides spiritual armour for protection.

The Belt of Truth

Truth keeps believers grounded.

Knowing and applying Scripture protects against deception.

The Breastplate of Righteousness

Believers stand in Christ's righteousness.

Living uprightly guards the heart.

The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace

Believers should walk confidently and share the message of Christ.

The Shield of Faith

Faith extinguishes doubts, fears, and attacks from the enemy.

The Helmet of Salvation

Assurance of salvation protects the mind.

The Sword of the Spirit

The Word of God is the believer's offensive weapon.

Jesus used Scripture to overcome temptation.

Matthew 4:4 (NKJV)

“It is written...”

5. Prayer in Spiritual Warfare

Prayer is essential in every spiritual battle.

Ephesians 6:18 (NKJV)

“Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit.”

Prayer helps believers:

Remain alert.

Receive strength.

Discern God's guidance.

Intercede for others.

Experience peace.

6. Resisting the Devil

Believers are commanded to resist Satan.

James 4:7 (NKJV)

“Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you.”

Steps to Resistance

Submit yourself to God.

Confess sin quickly.

Fill your mind with Scripture.

Maintain fellowship with believers.

Stay faithful in prayer.

Avoid situations that encourage temptation.

7. Victory Through Christ

The Christian life is not lived in fear.

Jesus has already won the decisive victory.

Romans 8:37 (NKJV)

“Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.”

Believers can face challenges with confidence because Christ is with them.

1 John 4:4 (NKJV)

“He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

Biblical Examples

Jesus in the Wilderness

Matthew 4:1–11

Jesus resisted temptation through obedience and Scripture.

Job

Job remained faithful despite severe trials and attacks.

Paul

Paul endured persecution, imprisonment, and hardship while continuing to serve Christ faithfully.

Illustration

A soldier entering battle without armour is vulnerable to attack.

Likewise, believers who neglect prayer, Scripture, and obedience leave themselves exposed to spiritual attacks.

God has provided everything necessary for victory.

Reflection Questions

1. What are some common strategies Satan uses against believers?
 2. Which piece of the armour of God do you need to strengthen in your life?
 3. How can Scripture help you overcome temptation?
 4. Why is prayer important in spiritual warfare?
 5. What does it mean to be "more than conquerors" through Christ?

Memory Verse

Ephesians 6:11 (NKJV)

“Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.”

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the victory that is found in Jesus Christ. Help me to stand firm against the enemy, clothe myself daily with the armour You have provided, and remain faithful in prayer and obedience. Strengthen my faith and teach me to rely completely upon Your power.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Points to Remember

- Spiritual warfare is a reality for every believer.
- Satan is defeated, but he still opposes God's people.
- God has provided spiritual armour for protection.
- Prayer and Scripture are essential weapons in spiritual battles.
- Believers can live confidently because Christ has already won the victory.

CHAPTER 3

The Church and Its Mission

Theme Scripture

Matthew 16:18 (NKJV)

“And I also say to you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.”

Key Verse

Acts 1:8 (NKJV)

“But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

Introduction

The Church is God's chosen instrument for proclaiming the Gospel, nurturing believers, demonstrating His love, and impacting the world for Christ. Jesus established the Church and promised that it would continue until His return.

Many people think of the church as a building, denomination, or organization. However, the Bible teaches that the Church is a community of redeemed people who have been called out of darkness into God's marvellous light.

Every disciple should understand the purpose of the Church and actively participate in its mission. God intends for believers not merely to attend church services, but to become engaged members of Christ's body, using their gifts and abilities to advance His Kingdom.

1. What Is the Church?

The word church comes from the Greek word ekklesia, meaning "the called-out assembly."

The Church consists of all people who have placed their faith in Jesus Christ.

The Universal Church

The universal Church includes believers from every nation, tribe, language, and generation.

Ephesians 1:22–23 (NKJV)

“And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, which is His body.”

The Local Church

Local churches are gatherings of believers who worship, learn, serve, and minister together.

Examples in Scripture include:

The church in Jerusalem.

The church in Antioch.

The church in Corinth.

The church in Philippi.

Believers are encouraged to become active participants in a local fellowship.

2. Jesus Christ Is the Head of the Church

Colossians 1:18 (NKJV)

“And He is the head of the body, the church.”

Jesus directs and sustains His Church.

Church leaders are servants under Christ's authority.

Believers should seek His guidance in all ministry activities.

3. The Purpose of the Church

Worship

The Church gathers to honour and glorify God.

Psalms 95:6 (NKJV)

“Oh come, let us worship and bow down.”

Discipleship

Believers are taught God's Word and encouraged to grow spiritually.

Matthew 28:20 (NKJV)

“Teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you.”

Fellowship

Christians strengthen one another through relationships, encouragement, and prayer.

Acts 2:42 (NKJV)

“And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship.”

Ministry

The Church serves people through practical acts of love and compassion.

Examples include:

Helping the poor

Visiting the sick

Counselling families

Supporting widows and orphans

Providing humanitarian assistance

Evangelism

The Church proclaims the message of salvation.

Mark 16:15 (NKJV)

“Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.”

4. Spiritual Gifts Within the Church

God equips believers with gifts for ministry.

Romans 12:6–8

Examples include:

Teaching

Leadership

Serving

Giving

Mercy

Encouragement

Administration

Hospitality

Every believer has a role to fulfil.

No gift is insignificant.

5. Unity in the Church

Unity does not mean everyone is identical.

Believers may differ in background, personality, and abilities.

However, they share one faith, one Saviour, and one mission.

Ephesians 4:3 (NKJV)

“Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.”

Unity is maintained through:

Humility

Forgiveness

Patience

Love

Mutual respect

6. The Mission of the Church

Jesus entrusted His followers with the Great Commission.

Matthew 28:19–20 (NKJV)

The mission of the Church includes:

Proclaiming the Gospel.

Making disciples.

Training leaders.

Planting churches.

Serving communities.

Demonstrating God's love.

Preparing believers for Christ's return.

7. The Church and Society

Christians are called to influence society positively.

Matthew 5:13–14 (NKJV)

“You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world.”

Believers should model:

Integrity

Justice

Compassion

Generosity

Truthfulness

Peace-making

The Church should shine brightly in a world filled with spiritual darkness.

Biblical Examples

The Jerusalem Church

Believers shared resources, prayed together, and experienced remarkable growth.

Acts 2:44–47

The Church at Antioch

This church became a centre for missions and leadership development.

Acts 13:1–3

The Macedonian Churches

Despite poverty, they gave generously to support ministry.

2 Corinthians 8:1–5

Illustration

A human body functions effectively because each part contributes to the well-being of the whole.

Similarly, the Church thrives when every believer faithfully fulfils his or her God-given role.

When members neglect their responsibilities, the entire body suffers.

Reflection Questions

1. How does the Bible define the Church?
2. Why is Jesus called the Head of the Church?
3. Which purpose of the Church resonates most strongly with you?

4. What spiritual gifts has God entrusted to you?
 5. How can you contribute more effectively to your local church?

Memory Verse

Matthew 16:18 (NKJV)

“I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it.”

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for making me part of Your Church. Help me to love Your people, serve faithfully, and participate actively in the mission You have entrusted to us. Use my gifts to strengthen the body of Christ and help me remain committed to advancing Your Kingdom.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Points to Remember

- The Church is the body of Christ and the family of God.
- Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church.

- The Church exists to worship, disciple, fellowship, serve, and evangelize.
- Every believer has spiritual gifts to contribute.
- The Church is called to impact society with the love and truth of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 4

Making Disciples: Fulfilling the Great Commission

Theme Scripture

Matthew 28:18–20 (NKJV)

“And Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, ‘All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.’ Amen.”

Key Verse

2 Timothy 2:2 (NKJV)

“And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

Introduction

Jesus did not command His followers merely to make converts. He instructed them to make disciples. A convert may make a decision for Christ, but a disciple follows Jesus, obeys His teachings, grows spiritually, and helps others become followers of Christ.

Disciple-making was central to the ministry of Jesus. He invested much of His time teaching, mentoring, correcting, encouraging, and preparing twelve ordinary men who would later influence the world with the Gospel.

The mission of the Church remains unchanged today. Every believer is called to participate in the work of making disciples. Whether through personal relationships, family life, church ministry, or community outreach, disciples are called to reproduce themselves spiritually.

Making disciples is not the responsibility of pastors alone. It is the privilege and duty of every Christian.

1. Understanding the Great Commission

Matthew 28:18–20 (NKJV)

The Great Commission contains four important elements.

Go

Disciples intentionally reach people wherever they are.

This may involve:

Sharing Christ with neighbours.

Supporting missions.

Serving communities.

Traveling to unreached regions.

Using digital platforms.

Make Disciples

Disciple-making goes beyond evangelism.

It involves helping believers grow toward maturity.

Baptize

New believers publicly identify with Jesus Christ through baptism.

Teach

Disciples are taught to obey everything Jesus commanded.

Biblical instruction is essential for spiritual growth.

2. Jesus' Model of Disciple-Making

Jesus demonstrated an effective pattern for developing disciples.

He Chose People

Jesus selected individuals who were willing to follow Him.

Mark 3:14 (NKJV)

“Then He appointed twelve, that they might be with Him and that He might send them out to preach.”

He Spent Time With Them

Jesus shared meals, travelled, prayed, and ministered alongside His disciples.

Discipleship grows through relationships.

He Taught Them

Jesus instructed His followers through sermons, conversations, parables, and practical demonstrations.

He Allowed Them to Serve

Jesus sent His disciples to preach, heal, and minister.

Experience helped strengthen their faith.

He Commissioned Them

After His resurrection, Jesus entrusted them with continuing His mission.

3. Characteristics of a Disciple-Maker

A Disciple-Maker Loves People

Effective discipleship begins with genuine concern for others.

A Disciple-Maker Lives by Example

1 Corinthians 11:1 (NKJV)

“Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ.”

People learn not only through teaching but also through observing godly lifestyles.

A Disciple-Maker Is Patient

Spiritual growth takes time.

Believers mature at different rates.

A Disciple-Maker Encourages Others

Encouragement strengthens faith and motivates believers to persevere.

A Disciple-Maker Depends on the Holy Spirit

Only God can transform hearts.

Disciple-makers cooperate with the Holy Spirit's work.

4. Practical Steps for Making Disciples

Pray for People

Ask God to reveal individuals who need encouragement and guidance.

Build Relationships

Spend time listening, sharing experiences, and developing trust.

Study the Bible Together

Discuss Scripture regularly.

Answer questions patiently.

Teach Basic Christian Truths

Topics may include:

Salvation

Prayer

Bible study

Worship

Fellowship

Stewardship

Evangelism

Spiritual warfare

Encourage Accountability

Healthy discipleship includes mutual encouragement and correction.

Involve Others in Ministry

Invite new believers to participate in church activities and outreach opportunities.

5. Multiplication in Discipleship

God desires disciples who reproduce spiritually.

2 Timothy 2:2 (NKJV)

Paul taught Timothy.

Timothy taught faithful believers.

Those believers taught others.

This pattern allows the Gospel to spread from generation to generation.

6. Challenges in Disciple-Making

Some challenges include:

Limited time.

Fear of inadequacy.

Lack of commitment.

Discouragement.

Spiritual opposition.

Despite these obstacles, God promises to strengthen those who serve faithfully.

7. The Promise of Christ's Presence

Jesus concluded the Great Commission with a powerful promise.

Matthew 28:20 (NKJV)

“And lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

Disciple-makers never work alone.

Jesus accompanies, guides, and empowers His followers.

Illustration

A candle can light another candle without losing its own flame.

As more candles are lit, darkness gradually disappears.

Likewise, disciples who invest in others multiply the light of Christ throughout the world.

Reflection Questions

1. Who invested in your spiritual growth?
 2. Are you intentionally discipline someone?
 3. What qualities of Jesus' disciple-making ministry inspire you most?
 4. What obstacles hinder you from mentoring others?
 5. How can you begin discipline someone during the next month?

Memory Verse

2 Timothy 2:2 (NKJV)

“And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for calling me to participate in Your mission. Help me to follow the example of Jesus by investing in the lives of others. Give me wisdom, patience, and compassion as I encourage believers to grow in faith. May my life produce disciples who will faithfully serve You and lead others to Christ.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Points to Remember

- Jesus commanded believers to make disciples.
- Disciple-making involves evangelism, teaching, mentoring, and spiritual growth.
- Jesus modelled intentional discipleship through relationships and example.
- Every Christian is called to help others follow Christ.
- Disciples who make disciples contribute to the expansion of God's Kingdom.
- Conclusion – Discipleship Part 4
- As we conclude Part Four and complete this discipleship journey, we are reminded that following Jesus Christ is not merely about gaining biblical knowledge but about living a life that reflects His character and fulfils His mission.
- Throughout these lessons, we have discovered that every believer is called to be a witness for Christ, boldly proclaiming the message of salvation to a world in need of hope. We have learned that spiritual warfare is a reality, yet we need not fear because Jesus Christ has already secured the victory through His death and resurrection. By putting on the whole armour of God, standing firmly upon His Word, and remaining faithful in prayer, believers can overcome every attack of the enemy.

- We have also seen that the Church is God's chosen instrument for worship, fellowship, discipleship, ministry, and evangelism. Every believer has a unique place within the body of Christ and is called to use spiritual gifts and abilities for the advancement of God's Kingdom.
- Finally, we have been challenged to embrace the Great Commission by intentionally making disciples. Jesus did not command us merely to make converts, but to nurture believers toward spiritual maturity, teaching them to obey His commands and equipping them to disciple others. Through this process, the Gospel continues to spread from one generation to another.
- Discipleship is a lifelong journey. There is always more to learn, deeper levels of faith to experience, and greater opportunities to serve. As you continue walking with Christ, remain committed to prayer, fellowship, obedience, and faithful witness. Depend upon the Holy Spirit, trust God's promises, and remember that Jesus is always with you.
- May your life become a testimony of God's grace, a reflection of Christ's love, and an instrument through which many others come to know and follow Jesus Christ.
- Closing Scripture
- 2 Timothy 2:2 (NKJV)
- "And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also."

- Closing Prayer
- Heavenly Father,
- Thank You for guiding me through this discipleship journey. Thank You for teaching me Your truth, strengthening my faith, and preparing me to serve in Your Kingdom. Help me to remain faithful in sharing the Gospel, standing firm against spiritual opposition, serving within Your Church, and investing in the lives of others. May I continue to grow in grace and become a disciple who makes disciples for Your glory.
- In Jesus' name, Amen.
