

God's Grace Is Enough

“My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” — 2 Corinthians 12:9

There are moments in life when we feel inadequate, overwhelmed, or weary. We may wonder if we have enough strength to continue or enough wisdom to face what lies ahead. In those moments, God reminds us that His grace is sufficient.

Grace is more than God's favour—it is His divine strength working in us. When our strength runs out, His strength remains. When we feel weak, He empowers us. When we feel discouraged, He lifts us up.

The Apostle Paul learned that true strength comes not from self-reliance but from dependence on God. The same is true for us today. We do not have to carry every burden alone. We can lean on the One whose power never fails.

Whatever challenge you are facing today, remember that God's grace is available to you. He will provide the strength, wisdom, peace, and endurance you need for every step of the journey.

Prayer

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your amazing grace. Help me to rely on Your strength instead of my own. When I feel weak, remind me that You are my source of power and hope. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Faith Declaration

God's grace is sufficient for me. His strength is working in my weakness. I will not be discouraged or defeated because the Lord is my helper and my strength. Amen.

Where God's grace is present, there is strength for every challenge and hope for every situation.
