

God Is Working All Things for Your Good

“And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.” — Romans 8:28

Life does not always unfold as we expect. There are moments of joy and seasons of difficulty. Sometimes we understand what God is doing, and sometimes we do not. Yet one truth remains certain: God is always at work.

Joseph experienced betrayal, slavery, and imprisonment, but God used every setback to position him for his destiny. What others meant for harm, God turned into good. In the same way, God can use your trials, disappointments, and delays to accomplish His greater purpose.

Do not lose heart because of today's challenges. The Lord sees the complete picture while we see only a small part. Trust His wisdom, rest in His promises, and continue walking faithfully before Him.

What seems like a setback may be a setup for a greater blessing. What feels like a closed door may be God's protection. What appears to be a delay may be divine preparation.

Prayer

Father, thank You that You are working in every area of my life. Help me to trust You when I do not understand Your ways. Strengthen my faith and teach me to rest in Your perfect plan. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Faith Declaration

God is working all things for my good. I will trust His timing, follow His leading, and remain confident in His promises. My future is secure in His hands, and His purpose for my life will prevail. Amen.

Trust the process—God is writing a testimony from every chapter of your life.
