

I Am Covered by God's Grace

Today, I declare that the grace of God is sufficient for me in every circumstance.

I declare that God's grace goes before me, making a way where there seems to be no way.

I declare that every burden I carry is made lighter by the strength of the Lord.

I declare that I am not limited by my weaknesses, for God's power is perfected in them.

I declare that divine favour rests upon my life and opens doors of opportunity and blessing.

I declare that God's grace sustains me through trials, strengthens me in difficulties, and encourages me in moments of waiting.

I declare that I will not be overcome by fear, anxiety, or discouragement, because God's grace is at work within me.

I declare that the Lord is guiding my steps, directing my decisions, and ordering my path.

I declare that every challenge I face will become a testimony of God's faithfulness.

I declare that I am growing in faith, wisdom, and spiritual strength each day.

I declare that the goodness and mercy of the Lord shall accompany me throughout this day and beyond.

Scripture for Today

"And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness." — 2 Corinthians 12:9

Declaration

I am covered by God's grace. I am strengthened by His power. I am upheld by His mercy. Today I will walk in confidence, knowing that God's grace is more than enough for me. Amen.
