

The Lord Is Gracious

Today, I declare that the Lord is gracious, and His mercy is abundant toward me.

I declare that His grace is sufficient for every challenge I face and every burden I carry.

I declare that the Lord's compassion surrounds me, and His loving kindness never departs from me.

I declare that where I am weak, God's strength is made perfect.

I declare that every mistake of the past is covered by His mercy, and every new day is filled with fresh hope.

I declare that the Lord is opening doors that no one can shut and making a way where there seems to be no way.

I declare that His favour rests upon my life, bringing peace, provision, and divine opportunities.

I declare that I am upheld by God's mighty hand and sustained by His unfailing love.

I declare that the Lord is guiding my steps and directing me into His perfect will.

I declare that my heart will remain grateful, knowing that every good and perfect gift comes from Him.

I declare that God's grace is at work in my life, transforming challenges into testimonies and trials into triumphs.
