Joseph the Dreamer.

A Story for Children.

Introduction

Have you ever wondered if God has a special plan for your life?

The Bible is filled with true stories of people whom God used in amazing ways. One of those people was a young boy named Joseph. Joseph's life was not always easy. He experienced love and joy, but he also faced jealousy, sadness, loneliness, and many difficult challenges.

Even when things went wrong, Joseph trusted God. He remained faithful, worked hard, and chose to forgive those who hurt him. Through every part of his journey, God was with him and guided him toward a wonderful purpose.

This story will teach children that God never forgets His people. It reminds us that our troubles do not stop God's plans. Just as God had a special purpose for Joseph, He also has a special purpose for each one of us.

As you read this story, think about how Joseph trusted God through every situation and how you can trust God in your own life.

May Joseph's story encourage you to have faith, obey God, forgive others, and believe that God is working all things together for good.

Joseph the Dreamer.

A Story for Children.

Bible Reference: Genesis 37–50.

Chapter 1: The Special Coat.

Long ago, there lived a boy named Joseph.
He was one of Jacob's twelve sons.

Jacob loved all his children, but Joseph was very special to him. One day, Jacob gave Joseph a beautiful coat with many bright colours.

Joseph was very happy.

"Thank you, Father!" he said as he hugged Jacob.

But Joseph's brothers became jealous.

"Why does Joseph get all the attention?" they grumbled.

Their hearts filled with envy.

Chapter 2: Joseph's Amazing Dreams.

Chapter 2: Joseph's Amazing Dreams

Joseph had two amazing dreams.

In the first dream, his bundle of wheat stood tall, and all the other bundles bowed down to it.

In the second dream, the sun, the moon, and eleven stars bowed down to him.

When Joseph told his brothers, they became angry and jealous.

But God was showing Joseph that He had a special plan for his life.

One night, Joseph had a strange dream.

In the dream, he saw bundles of wheat standing in a field. Suddenly, all the other bundles bowed down to his bundle.

The next morning Joseph excitedly told his brothers.

"I had a dream!" he said.

His brothers frowned.

"What do you mean?" they asked.

"Does that mean one day we will bow down to you?"

They became even more angry.

Soon Joseph had another dream.

This time the sun, moon, and eleven stars bowed down to him.

His family wondered what these dreams meant.

Joseph did not fully understand, but God was showing him that He had a special plan for his life.

Chapter 3: Sold Into Egypt.

Chapter 3: Sold Into Egypt

Joseph's brothers were angry with him.
They sold him to traders who were travelling to Egypt.
Joseph felt sad and scared as he was taken far away from his home.
But even in that difficult moment,
God was with Joseph.

One day, Joseph's brothers were taking care of sheep far from home.

Jacob asked Joseph to check on them.

When the brothers saw Joseph coming, they became angry.

"Here comes the dreamer!" they said.

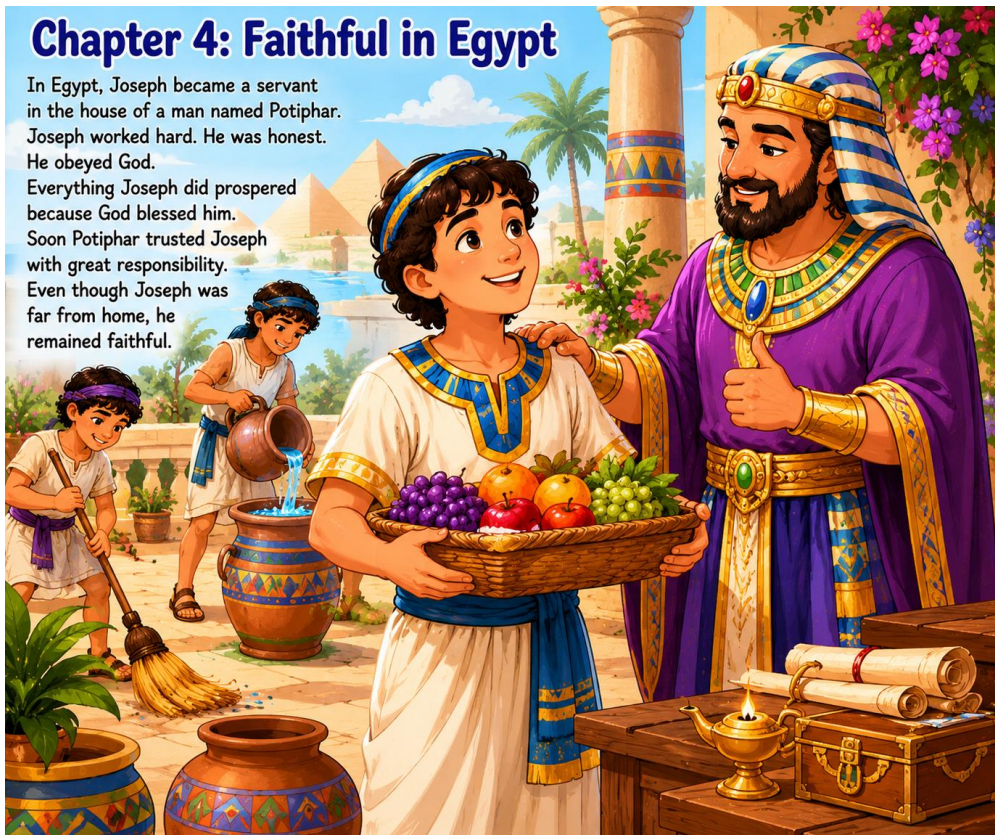

At first they planned to hurt him, but instead they sold him to traders traveling to Egypt.

Joseph felt sad and scared.

He was far away from home and family.

But even in that difficult moment, God was with Joseph.

Chapter 4: Faithful in Egypt

In Egypt, Joseph became a servant in the house of a man named Potiphar.

Joseph worked hard.

He was honest.

He obeyed God.

Everything Joseph did prospered because God blessed him.

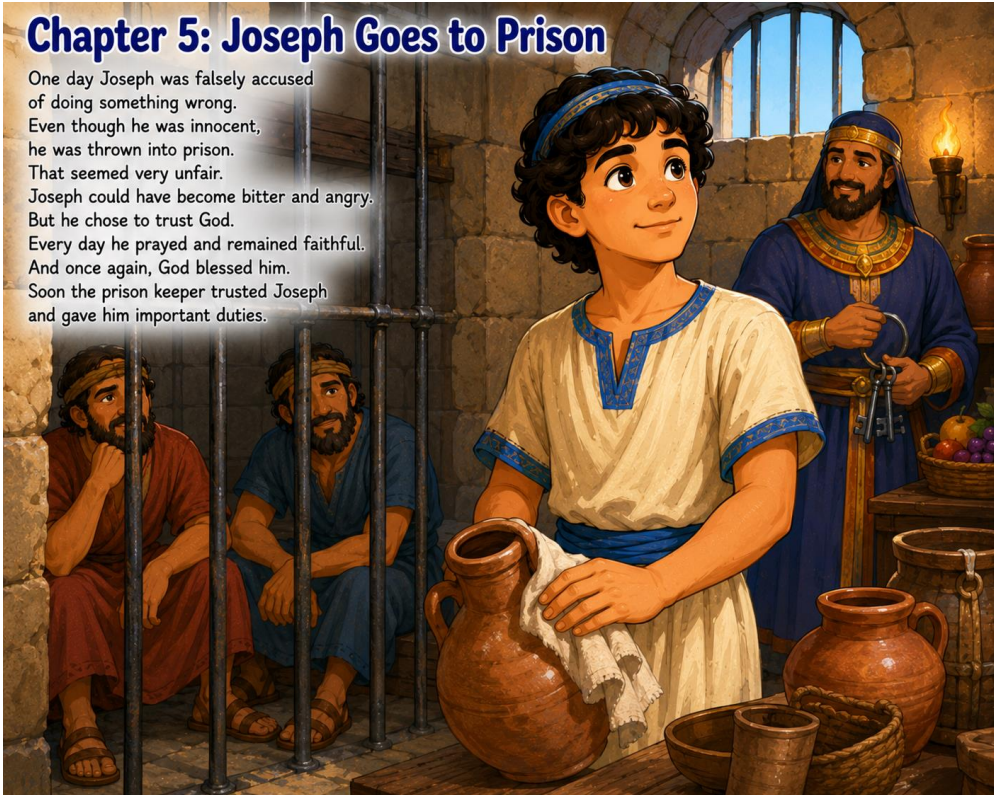

Soon Potiphar trusted Joseph with great responsibility.

Even though Joseph was far from home, he remained faithful.

Chapter 5: Joseph Goes to Prison.

Chapter 5: Joseph Goes to Prison

One day Joseph was falsely accused of doing something wrong.
Even though he was innocent,
he was thrown into prison.
That seemed very unfair.
Joseph could have become bitter and angry.
But he chose to trust God.
Every day he prayed and remained faithful.
And once again, God blessed him.
Soon the prison keeper trusted Joseph and gave him important duties.

One day Joseph was falsely accused of doing something wrong.

Joseph could have become bitter and angry.

But he chose to trust God.

Every day he prayed and remained faithful.

And once again, God blessed him.

Soon the prison keeper trusted Joseph and gave him important duties.

Chapter 6: The King's Dream

Years later, Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had troubling dreams.

No one could explain them.

Then someone remembered Joseph.

Joseph was brought before Pharaoh.

With God's help, Joseph explained the dreams.

The dreams warned that a famine was coming.

Pharaoh was amazed.

"God is with you," Pharaoh said.

Then Pharaoh made Joseph the ruler of Egypt, second only to himself.

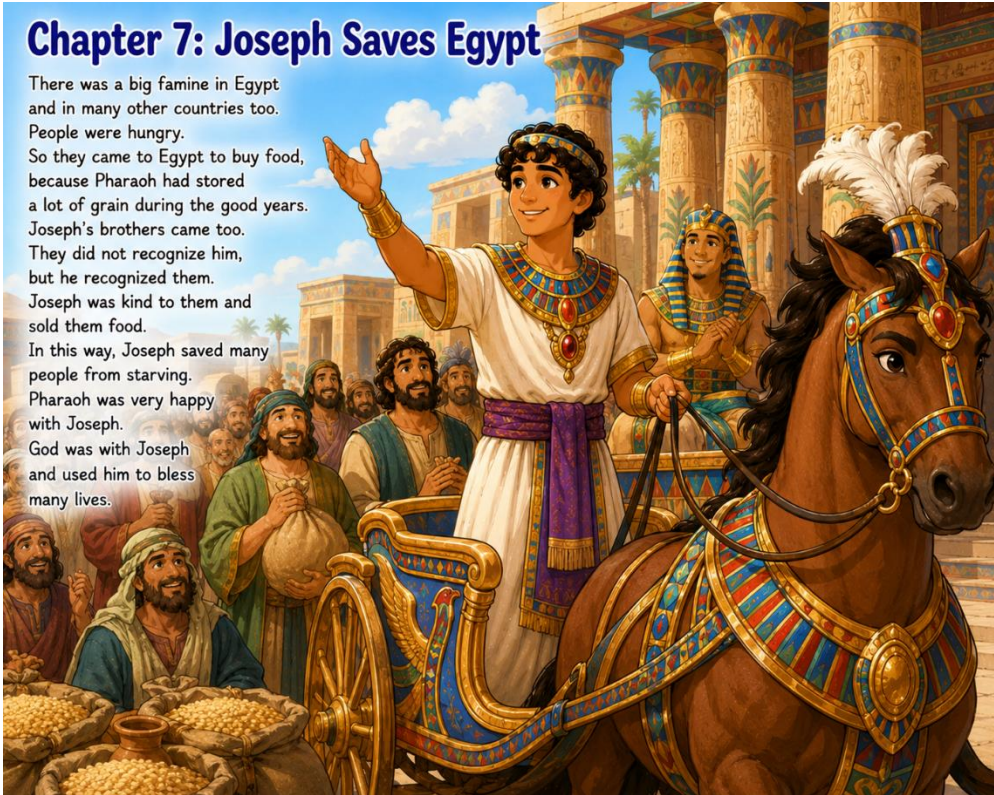

The boy who had once been a slave was now a great leader.

God's plan was coming true.

Chapter 7: A Time of Forgiveness

Chapter 7: Joseph Saves Egypt

There was a big famine in Egypt and in many other countries too. People were hungry. So they came to Egypt to buy food, because Pharaoh had stored a lot of grain during the good years. Joseph's brothers came too. They did not recognize him, but he recognized them. Joseph was kind to them and sold them food. In this way, Joseph saved many people from starving. Pharaoh was very happy with Joseph. God was with Joseph and used him to bless many lives.

Many years later, a famine spread across the land.

Joseph's brothers came to Egypt looking for food.

At first they did not recognize Joseph.

But Joseph recognized them.

He could have chosen revenge.

Instead, Joseph chose forgiveness.

With tears in his eyes, he said,

"I am Joseph, your brother."

His brothers were afraid.

But Joseph smiled.

"Do not be afraid. God used everything for good."

Joseph forgave them and welcomed them.

Soon the whole family was reunited.

What Joseph Learned

Joseph learned that:

- God is with us in good times and hard times.
- We should stay faithful even when life is difficult.
- Forgiveness is stronger than revenge.
- God's plans are always greater than our problems.

Lesson for Children

Sometimes things do not go the way we expect.

You may face challenges at school.

You may feel forgotten.

You may have to wait a long time for your dreams.

But remember Joseph.

He trusted God.

He remained faithful.

And God turned his troubles into blessings.

Always remember:

God has a special plan for your life.

Memory Verse.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Jeremiah 29:11

Moral of the Story.

Trust God, stay faithful, forgive others,
and never stop believing in your dreams.

GOD HAD A PLAN FOR JOSEPH!

From a dreamer and a son,
to a servant, a prisoner,
and finally a ruler,
Joseph's journey shows us how God turns difficulties into blessings.
Through faith, trust, and kindness,
Joseph became a blessing to many people.

GOD IS WITH YOU EVERY STEP OF YOUR JOURNEY.
